Course description:
Existing: A study of art principles applied to personal appearance of clothing for the individual.
As it appears in the current catalog. (required)

As it will appear in the next catalog or indicate no change. (Please use standard American English including full sentences.) Course descriptions only. Do not include prerequisites or enrollment restrictions, these should be added under questions 9-15.
This course focuses on the study and application of the basic principles and elements of fashion design. An analysis of personal coloring and body proportions and how fabrics, materials, patterns, colors, and construction in clothing influence the appearance of the individual is covered. Students will research and evaluate the fashion trends of the last 100 years and the significant designers that have shaped the fashion industry.
