Course description:
As it appears in the current catalog (required)
Taken in the first semester, this course helps students identify important aspects of the current design landscape. The subject matter provides students with the analytical tools needed to investigate the theoretical framework underlying contemporary design. Works by important design theorists and critics will be studied in order to identify methodological approaches and develop analytical skills. Students will pursue a reflective and philosophical interpretation of contemporary visual communication. Prerequisite(s): Concurrent enrollment in DES 5206 is required. Permission of the MFA in Illustration program director is required. Enrollment open to graduate Illustration majors only.

Existing: program director is required. Enrollment open to graduate Illustration majors only.

Proposed: No change
